Extended Educational Decision Maker

Has the student attained or is the student approaching the age of majority or have rights otherwise transferred?

Is the child under a guardianship?
- Yes
  - Does the guardianship order provide that the ward (i.e., the student) shall make educational decisions?
    - No
      - Stop: The guardian may make educational decisions unless educational decisions are specifically excluded by the guardianship order
    - Yes
      - Stop: The student may make educational decisions
  - No

Is the student subject to another court or administrative order?
- Yes
  - Does the order provide that the student shall make educational decisions?
    - No
      - Stop: Unless otherwise provided, a person appointed to make decisions may make educational decisions so long as they are consistent with the court order
    - Yes
      - Stop: The student may make educational decisions
- No

Has the student executed a power of attorney naming someone as their attorney in fact for educational decisions?
- Yes
  - Is the student competent to enter into a contract?
    - No
      - Stop: The student or attorney in fact may make educational decisions
    - Yes
      - The student may make educational decisions
- No

On the basis of a determination of fact made by an impartial decision maker assigned by the AEA Director of Special Education, is the student able to provide informed consent?
- Yes
- No

Appoint the parent to make educational decisions and provide informed consent or, if the parent is unavailable, appoint another person, using the surrogate parent process.